Mercy Place Albury

A Reason to Choose Mercy

The story of Mercy Health began in 1831 with the establishment of the Sisters of Mercy in Dublin by Catherine McAuley, who was dedicated to serving those in need.

The Sisters of Mercy went on to establish community services, schools, and hospitals worldwide. In 1846, led by Mother Ursula Frayne, the Sisters of Mercy arrived in Australia, where their commitment to care and hospitality is a lasting legacy—one that continues to shape our work today.

As a not-for-profit Catholic aged care provider, Mercy Health embeds the values of compassion, respect, and community. Our mission is to prioritise your well-being and dignity, ensuring that every resident feels valued, supported, and cared for.

We understand that transitioning into aged care can be a significant change, and our holistic approach nurtures not only the body but also the mind and spirit.

At each Mercy Health Residential Aged Care home we have qualified Pastoral Carers on the team. Our dedicated team offers emotional and spiritual support to foster a deep sense of belonging and connection. By choosing Mercy Health, you receive more than just high-quality, personalised care—you become part of a welcoming and supportive community that honours your faith, values, and individuality. We warmly welcome clients from all backgrounds, whether you follow a specific denomination or are non-denominational.

At Mercy Health, we take the time to understand your preferences, care needs, and overall well-being. We work closely with you and your family to create a personalised experience that reflects who you are and what matters most to you.

Our home

In our original building, you can choose from a variety of room layouts, all of which are stylishly decorated with modern amenities. Enjoy our spacious dining rooms, activity rooms, a library and cosy sitting areas where you can relax or entertain family and friends.

Our modern households are home to a small number of residents. Each household is designed to look homely, with its own kitchen, dining and living room. A number of these new rooms enjoy direct access to a peaceful courtyard.

All common areas display contemporary artwork and have well-appointed furniture and premium decor. Enjoy the sunshine in an internal courtyard, join in an activity or group exercise, or attend a service or event at our beautiful chapel.

Consider the room's location and its proximity to the services and amenities that matter most to you, such as communal spaces, the hairdressing salon, or a wellness centre. More than just a place to stay, your room should be a space where you feel relaxed, secure, and truly at home.

At Mercy Place Albury, our lovely rooms all boast a contemporary and stylish design. Enjoy the high-quality furniture and fittings including wall-mounted flat screen TVs, reverse cycle air conditioning, built-in wardrobes and space for your personal treasures.
