Our home

At Edgewater Mercy Hostel, we are proud to provide high-quality care and accommodation where residents can feel safe, comfortable and valued. Our Edgewater home is built around the concept of Household Living, in which residents, families and staff are encouraged to work together to enjoy meaningful daily activities both within the home and outside it.

Our home consists of four individual households, each of which features a large dining room, kitchen, lounge room and cosy sitting areas where you can relax or entertain family and friends. All common areas are furnished and decorated to enhance the warm and inviting feel of our home. Enjoy the fresh air in one of our shaded courtyards, participate in fun recreational activities or visit the hairdresser at our on-site salon.

Choosing a room

Our lovely private rooms all boast a welcoming and stylish design. Enjoy the quality furniture and fittings, including reverse-cycle air conditioning with individual thermostat control. All rooms are awash in natural light and some offer beautiful courtyard views.

Our rooms

You can choose to pay for your room by a Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD), a Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP) or any combination you choose. A RAD is paid as a lump sum. A DAP accrues daily and is paid periodically, for example monthly. A combination payment includes a partial lump sum and daily payments. We also offer a drawdown option.

of Edgewater Mercy Hostel.

The modern story of Mercy Health began with the founding of the Order of the Sisters of Mercy in Dublin in 1831 by Catherine McAuley, who dedicated her life to serving people in need.

The Sisters of Mercy went on to found convents, schools and hospitals across the globe. They arrived in Australia in 1846, led by Mother Ursula Frayne.

Following a devastating influenza pandemic, the Sisters of Mercy opened their first Victorian hospital — St Benedict's in Malvern — in 1920.

As Mercy Health, they established a reputation for excellence in care and hospitality that has grown in strength to this day.

A leading Catholic provider of health, aged and community services, our history and future is based on responding to the most significant needs of the time.

We employ and care for people of all faiths and no faith. Our people come from many cultures and backgrounds but share a common goal: to provide compassionate and responsive care to people in need.
